

What are the most rented family movies?

The chart below shows the rental counts for family movies in the categories of Animation, Children, Classics, Comedy, Family, and Music. It displays the total number of times each movie has been rented, helping us see which family-friendly films are the most popular. This analysis shows which movies families prefer the most.

What a Family-Friendly Movie Rental Durations by Quartiles?

The chart below shows family-friendly movies divided into four quartiles based on their rental durations. Each quartile represents a range of rental durations for movies in different categories. By looking at this chart, we can see how the rental durations vary among categories like Animation, Children, Classics, Comedy, Family, and Music. The chart helps us understand which categories have longer or shorter rental durations and how popular each category is.

What the Total Rentals by Category (Top 5) for February?

This query displays the top 5 categories of films rented during the month of February, with the number of rentals for each category.

What is the Total Rental Orders Processed by Staff Members Over Time?

How many rental orders did each staff member process over time

This chart shows the number of rental orders processed by each staff member each month. It helps see work distribution and patterns. Different colors represent different staff members. This helps in evaluating performance, allocating resources, and improving efficiency.